

SPEAKERS

Dianne Machesney

Dianne works as a self-employed tax accountant but has also been a long-time amateur naturalist and photographer. She graduated from the Penn State Master Gardener program in 2011 and is active in the Long Vue Acres Garden Club, Wissahickon Nature Club and Botanical Society of W. PA. She was an adult leader in the Boy Scouts of America for 26 years and is in charge of the gardens at her church, St. Teresa of Avila, in Ross Township.

Denise Schreiber

If you're a fan of the KDKA radio show The Organic Gardeners on Sunday mornings, you may recognize Denise as Mrs. Know-It-All, as she often calls in to voice her opinion and help clarify answers to questions. Denise has an A.S. degree in Floriculture from CCAC, a B.A. from Carlow University and has more than 30 years of professional experience in horticulture. Denise wrote a book called Eat Your Roses, specifically about eating flowers in the garden. She also serves as the North Hills Monthly Magazine home and garden columnist and writes for Pennsylvania Gardener.

Carol Chernega

Carol Chernega has worked as a professional gardener since 1992. She has written for the Pittsburgh Tribune-Review, Pennsylvania Gardener, and National Wildlife Magazine. Several of her gardening e-books are available on Amazon's Kindle and her DVD: Pruning Shrubs with Your Personal Gardener is available on Amazon. She also owns One Garden at a Time, a garden maintenance business based in the eastern suburbs of Pittsburgh.

Stephen Piskor

Stephen spent his career as a research chemist in the nuclear power industry. Now retired, he has spent the past 28 years as a Master Gardener and a Pennsylvania Certified Horticulturist for the past 10 years. Stephen has authored articles for the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, served as a speakers bureau presenter, been involved in plant sale activities and contributed to the maintenance of public gardens.

SYMPOSIUM SCHEDULE

BACK THIS YEAR! — Enjoy an open mimosa bar during the entire Spring Gardening Symposium event!

8:00 AM Registration Opens / Continental Breakfast Served
Mimosa Bar, Silent Auction, Raffle & Plant Sale Open

9:00 AM Welcome

9:15 to 9:50 AM Landscaping in Deer Country with Dianne Machesney
Is there anything we can do to discourage deer from destroying our gardens? In this presentation the facts about our 'enemy' and how to use this information to the gardener's advantage will be discussed. Plants highlighted are those recommended as deer resistant in Western Pennsylvania by Master Gardeners.

9:50 AM to 10:50 AM Urban Myths & Legends in the Garden with Denise Schreiber
Every gardener has a special gardening secret or method that they have learned from a family member, The Farmer's Almanac, books or the Internet. Usually, there is some truth to these ideas but they have since grown into legends, much like passing a piece of gossip along. Listen as Denise separates fact from fiction and gives you the straight scoop on a variety of garden topics.

10:50 to 11:10 AM Break
Visit the vendors, purchase your plants and check out the amazing auction and raffle items.

11:15 AM Lunch served by guest waiters
Some very special people will be serving your table and competing in the "Tip Your Waiter" Competition. When you tip your waiter, you could win additional raffle tickets! The waiter with the most tips at the end of lunch will give each guest at their table(s) 10 Free Raffle Tickets. All tips are a donation to Glade Run.

12:20 to 1:20 PM Understanding Ornamental Grasses with Carol Cherna
Ornamental grasses are beautiful additions to any landscape providing texture, color, movement and seasonal interest. With an incredible selection of ornamentals available, listen as Carol shares her expertise on the subject including how to select the right plants, growing requirements, when to prune and divide and some handy tips that will help you easily add these elegant beauties to your garden spaces.

1:20 to 1:35 PM Break

1:35 to 2:30 PM Cool Tools & Other Stuff for the Gardener with Steve Piskor
Do your garden tools do most of the work or do your tools make you do most of the work? This presentation is a show-n-tell that highlights interesting gardening products: unusual/ergonomic tools (pruners, spades, weeders, etc.), accessories (gloves, tool carriers, kneepads, etc.), bio-friendly chemicals, and publications. A handout will include the name, model number, approximate cost, where to purchase, and a summary of the salient features of each of the items discussed.

2:30 PM Auction and Raffle Winners Announced

Thank you for coming!
